

COURSE GUIDE FALL 2024

Join us in Rome in December 2024!

CTH 315* Catholicism: Global Practices and Beliefs | TBD | Humanities (HU); Cultural Diversity (C); Global Awareness (G); REL Elective | 3 credits | Prof. Lefor

This course will meet four times during the semester and will travel together to Rome, Italy, after finals but before Christmas to explore the art, history, practices, and beliefs of Roman Catholicism. From the American Southwest to Rome to Subiaco to Assisi, the Catholic tradition will come to life as we explore the faith that has so impacted the world.

CTH 101 Great Catholic Adventure | T/Th 10:30 am-12:00 pm | Humanities (HU), Historical Awareness (H), REL Elective | 3 credits | Prof. Ayala

Enter into the interdisciplinary study of Catholic thought, education, and culture throughout the ages, exploring the great adventure of human life. New ASU students can take CTH 101 for only $300 with the Newman Center Scholarship! Contact srlefor@umary.edu to learn more.

CTH 210 Search for Happiness | T/Th 3:00-4:30 pm | Humanities (HU); PHI elective | 3 credits | Prof. Lefor

Investigate the nature of happiness in light of the complementarity of Christian faith and human reason as exemplified in the Catholic intellectual and cultural tradition. This course evaluates various claims about happiness originating from popular culture as well as philosophy, theology, and other disciplines.

CTH 301 Catholic Imagination | M/W 10:30-12:00 pm | Humanities (HU), | 3 credits | Dr. Fraher

Investigate the theological, aesthetic, and cultural significance of Catholicism's sacramental vision of the world and the human person, and explore its manifestation in art, literature, and architecture.

CTH 401 Great Catholic Figures | M/W 4:30-6:00 pm | Humanities (HU); Historical Awareness (H) 3 credits | Dr. Thurow

In this seminar-style course, explore great figures who have influenced the Catholic tradition, considering how their works are expressions both of the perennial tradition and of their particular cultural milieus.

CTH 150 Catholic Studies Tutorial 1

T 1:30-2:30 pm | General Elective | 1 credit | Dr. Kushner

Seminar focusing on instilling necessary habits of mind for Catholic Studies scholars.

CTH 350 Catholic Studies Tutorial 3

M 1:30-2:30 pm | General Elective | 1 credit | Fr. Qureshi

Seminar focusing on the New Evangelization as an approach to engaging culture.

