

Mary College at ASU

COURSE GUIDE FALL 2022

Join us in Rome in December 2022!

CTH 315 Catholicism: Global Practices and Beliefs (3 credits)
Humanities (HU); Cultural Diversity (C); Global Awareness (G)

TBD (based on student schedules)

This course will meet four times during the semester and will travel together to Rome, Italy, after finals but before Christmas to explore the art, history, practices, and beliefs of Roman Catholicism. From the American Southwest to Rome to Subiaco to Assisi, the Catholic tradition will come to life as we explore the faith that has so impacted the world.

CTH 101 Great Catholic Adventure (3 credits)
Humanities (HU); Historical Awareness (H); REL elective

T, Th 4:15pm-5:45pm

Enter into the interdisciplinary study of Catholic thought, education, and culture throughout the ages, exploring the great adventure of human life.

CTH 301 Catholic Imagination (3 credits)
Humanities (HU)

M, W 10:15am-11:45am

Investigate the theological, aesthetic, and cultural significance of Catholicism's sacramental vision of the world and the human person, and explore its manifestation in art, literature, and architecture.

CTH 401 Great Catholic Figures (3 credits)
Humanities (HU); Historical Awareness (H)

M, W 4:30pm-6:00pm

In this seminar-style course, explore great figures who have influenced the Catholic tradition, considering how their works are expressions both of the perennial tradition and of their particular cultural milieus.

CTH 150 Catholic Studies
Tutorial 1 (1 credit)
elective

T 3:00pm-4:00pm

Encounter the Catholic understanding of the complementarity of faith and reason.

CTH 350 Catholic Studies
Tutorial 3 (1 credit)
elective

M 1:00pm-2:00pm

Investigate how the ideas of vocation and leadership are understood and expressed in the Catholic tradition.

